

Garland & Zhang, LLC

COMPANY OVERVIEW

Garland & Zhang is a North Carolina-based general contracting and supply chain management firm founded and led by Robert Garland, a verified descendant of the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indian Nation. With over 40 years of global business and manufacturing experience, the company is pioneering a HUBZone-based, tariff-free supply chain platform focused on U.S. tribal lands. By leveraging unique treaty-based trade designations, Garland & Zhang works with more than 4,700 manufacturers to relocate light manufacturing, processing, and assembly operations to Indian territories. Goods are imported tariff-free and undergo final-stage production or distribution on tribal lands, creating jobs, stimulating local economies, and reducing end-user costs.

Garland & Zhang's vision is to empower tribal communities, enhance American competitiveness, and offer affordable goods without reliance on government assistance, all while adhering to environmentally responsible practices and supporting cultural exchange through diverse partnerships.
